Expanded GC Steel Production, Stinson Forecast s Here Today

By WM. F. WINTER

Plans for expanded production at Granite City Steel Co. were announced here today by George A. Stinson, president of the National Steel Corp., Pittsburgh, Pa. The local firm was acquired by National on Aug. 16.

Stinson flew here this morning and had lunch with a group of 60 community leaders. Accompanying him to the Granite City Steel office building were George B. Angevine, vice president—industrial relations and secretary of the corporation; and Howard M. Love, president of National's Steel Midwest Steel Division, Portage, Ind. (Chicago area).

He conferred during the day with Granite City Steel officials, including Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman and chief executive officer, and Lyle F. Gulley, president.

Utilizing the get-acquainted luncheon to discuss the future,

President Stinson told the gathering that additional capital expenditures are likely here, possibly substantial.

He explained that management of the wholly-owned subsidiary will be carried out on a decentralized basis, with nearly all decisions made in Granite City rather than Pittsburgh. "We need steel in excess of our ability to produce it. Our task is to produce this additional steel in our Granite City steelmaking and hot rolling facilities," Stinson said.

"We also expect to continue cold rolling at Granite City Steel to serve the trade area which Granite City has served so well for many years."

"Our plans mean that an additional plant will be spending some money here. It may be substantial. It will be whatever is required to put Granite City Steel in a position to do the expanded steelmaking and hot rolling which is required. We are prepared to do whatever is desirable and necessary. Our company is set up to operate in a rather decentralized way. This is our philosophy for management of the divisions."

"We think a steel mill complex is sufficiently large to deserve very competent, high-level management located right at the plant. We have put very high-grade people in charge at each division and vested them with the authority that goes with their responsibility."

"This makes it a lot easier for us in adding Granite City Steel to National Steel."

"Granite City Steel always has had good management and has done a fine job over the years. This fits in well with our decentralized philosophy."

Plans to hold a fourth annual steelmaking festival in July and August 1972 were unanimously approved by the Festival board of directors.

Since the Festival's first season in the summer of 1969, it has attracted more than 350,000 people to the southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University for concerts by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and an array of folk, pop and rock music artists.

The 14,000 person who attended this summer's Festival represented a 17% increase over 1970 attendance and a 30% increase over the first season.

The board also voted to establish a "Friends of the Festival." It is hoped the organization attracts thousands of members from both Illinois and Missouri.

"We were overwhelmed by the number of people on both sides of the river who became involved in last summer's Pyramid effort to raise money for the Festival. It demonstrated to us that we have a lot of people who are willing to support it with their time and money."

Nicholas P. Veeder, president of Midwest River Festival, Inc., commented.

Plans for activities and funding of the Friends group are expected to be developed in the next few weeks, Peter Pastrich managing director of the Festival said.

A report by Festival Treasurer Ernest A. Karandjef of Granite City showed the 1971 Festival breaking even, continuing on the successful completion of a contribution campaign currently under way within the board.

"This financial report is a strong indicator of the Festival's future," Veeder said.

"In a season when we were stricken with the withdrawal of funds and the necessity to purchase a new tent, we learned that the Missouri State Council of Fine Arts and the Illinois Arts Council — plus thousands of individuals — would support the Festival."

"With that kind of continued backing, we can look forward to many summers of fine music."

Simon in Governor Race; Won't Accept Other Posts

Paul Simon, who began his public career as a state representative from this district, today made it official. He is a candidate for governor of Illinois in 1972.

The Troy Democrat, currently lieutenant governor, told the Press-Record, "I run not to oppose any one man, but to propose new policies and a new direction."

He said he will carry his candidacy before party leaders and the public but stressed that he will accept nomination with no other state or federal post; this ruled out the possibility that he might be "slated" by Illinois Democrats for the U. S. senator race.

Citing polls and conversations which have convinced him that he would run better against Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie (R) than any other potential candidate, Simon called for a "strategy for the '70s" which demands of state service "not just adequacy but excellence which responds to needs and not pressure."

He asserted, "My 17 years in state government have given me the background to use the tools of leadership effectively. I pledge that any areas not now used for the benefit of all citizens of our state; I will yield to no special interest."

Junior College Study Launched

By MARION BARTOSIAK Press-Record Staff Writer

Formation, participation and operation of a junior college district were outlined by Dr. Fred L. Wellman, executive secretary of the Illinois Junior College Board at an informational meeting attended by over 30 persons Thursday night at the Granite City High School cafeteria.

Wellman noted that a State Senate bill—which would make it mandatory for areas not now part of a junior college district to form their own or annex to other districts—is now on third reading in the State House and passage is expected.

He said it is favored by both Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie and Lt. Gov. Paul Simon.

Wellman spoke and answered questions on the operations, costs, alternatives in participation and other factors during the meeting, called by the education committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of Granite City.

He said a community college is a different type of institution than a college and includes occupational-technical programs which last from a few days to two years and include extensive programs for adults.

"We don't stress just a baccalaureate program," he said. "In adult education, the only certificate to show that your education is completed is your degree certificate."

He cited a need for more specialists and added that adults could complete their high school education at night or could learn new skills, especially with shorter working hours and earlier retirements.

Admitting that taxpayers drawn on additional taxes, he said the state has financial pressures also, but that a student could stay at home and work while attending a junior college at much less cost. A number of community colleges have achieved full accreditation, he noted.

Being outside a district, as this area is now, has disadvantages and advantages, Dr. Wellman said.

"A student here has a choice of attending any other community college," he noted, and "in most areas, the tax rate generally is less, where there is no district."

"The tax rate is lower now, but if more students go to other community colleges, it will no longer be an advantage."

He said a student "can go elsewhere, if there is room, and that is a gamble. Also, you would have no voice in boards of other junior college districts."

If the legislation is successful, junior district areas will have until July 1, 1972, to present a plan for participation, and the plan would have to be implemented by Dec. 31, 1972.

Survey of Lakeview Drainage Authorized

A survey of a drainage ditch in Lakeview Estates was authorized by the Pontoon Beach Village Board Thursday night as the first step in a project to install a drainage pipe between Fontainebleau and Victoria drives.

The issue has been in dispute since it was proposed in July by trustee Fred Recker. The leading opponent is Dr. Dean Rochester, trustee, who insists the water in the ditch primarily is overflow from faulty septic tanks in the area and if drained into Long Lake would further pollute the lake.

The board authorized the project Aug. 26. But Thursday night the trustees gave Thomas L. Staicoff, board president, the authority to have the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan and Schwab, St. Louis, survey the drainage area and make recommendations on how the job should be accomplished.

Authorized Citations In conjunction with the project, Dave Moss, health officer, was instructed to issue citations to homeowners whose septic tanks were polluting the water in the ditch in an effort to prevent further pollution of Long Lake.

Approximately 35 Pontoon Beach residents appeared at the meeting Thursday night to protest citations issued by the health officer. Most said they had been cited for pumping basements, seepage water or other clean water from their homes and insisted the pumping they were doing was not polluting or creating a hazard.

The board instructed Moss to re-examine the homes already given citations and void the citations where if it is found a health hazard is not apparent.

Staicoff assured the board members that every effort was being made to clean up Long Lake. He said he had been informed that three men would (Continued on Page 15, Col. 5)

Madison School Tax Will Rise

By GARY SCHNEIDER Press-Record Staff Writer

A new 1971-72 tax levy of $86,272—up $46,216 over last year—and a final budget projecting current school year expenditures of $2,011,085 were adopted by the Madison Board of Education following a public budget hearing Thursday night.

School officials said the new tax levy is expected to result in a 1971 tax rate of $2.81 per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 14.5 cents over the 1970 rate of $2.665.

Fred Riddle, superintendent of schools, attributed the rate hike to three factors—the higher budget, decreased enrollment which reduces state aid income and declining property assessments which fell more than $2 million within the past year.

The new budget figure finally accepted by the board in Thursday night's public hearing was cut $54,670 below the tentative budget of $2,066,165 originally proposed by the school board a month ago.

The budget reduction, most of it in the educational fund, was made to conform with the projected loss in state aid, Riddle said.

Revenue Insufficient Officials noted at the same time that anticipated income for the current school year is expected to be $199,065 short of budgeted expenditures, confronting the district with the prospect of deficit financing in some form of borrowing if all budgeted expenditures are made.

Riddle told board members that enrollment reductions this year are expected to cut state aid income from an earlier projected $1,146,610 to $1,094,440.

Since state aid is applied to the educational fund, this required a budget cut in that fund from the original $2,150,357 to $2,096,195.

The new levy includes: Transportation, $24,400; educational, $516,000; building, $121,000; municipal retirement, $47,500; junior college tuition, $15,000; bonds and interest, $135,475; special education, $12,000; fire and safety, $15,000.

On the basis of the 1970 property valuation for Madison School District 12, rates for these levies were: transportation, .085; educational, $1.60 (maximum); building, .375 (maximum); retirement, .16; junior college, .65; bonds and interest, .45; special education, .04; and fire and safety, .05. Assessments for the 1971 year against which tax bills will be computed for collection next summer have not been completed.

Assessment Drops The district had a total assessment of $2,404,891 for the 1969 year. That figure, because of personal property exemptions and other changes in assessment procedures, dropped to $20,267,751 for the 1970 year, a loss of $2,068,110.

The budget and levy figures were considered during a public hearing, followed by a regular board meeting in which the bills were given final approval.

Levee District to Get State Grant

A state grant of $48,800 has been allocated to the East Side Levee and Sanitary District by the Department of Local Government Affairs at Springfield and should be received by the district within six to eight weeks, Marshall H. Smith, assistant state's attorney has notified officials of the district and the U.S. Corps of Army Engineers.

Smith recommended in a letter to William "Mike" Eversold, president of the levee board, that approximately $33,000 of the grant should be used for repairs at the North Pumping Station in East St. Louis. The Army Engineers have instructed the levee district to make such repairs because the condition of the pumping station presents a serious menace.

Smith announced at the same time that he plans to file in circuit court a class action suit for payment of fees to election judges who served in special elections May 4 and June 22 to name five members of a new levee board. The board never has been seated, however, because of court action filed by present board members.

Reduction to judgments of the debt owed election judges would permit the district to borrow funds with which to pay the election costs, Smith said. Eversold has said the district is responsible for the fees, but that it has no funds

Illinois Growth Concentrated in Suburbs Surrounding Big Cities

The metropolitan areas of Illinois, with a 1960-70 population gain of nearly one million, accounted for 94% of the state's growth.

And all this gain was in areas outside the central cities of metropolitan areas, a report issued by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, shows.

Between 1960 and 1970, the population of Illinois grew to 11,112,976, an increase of 1,032,818 or 10.2%. The metropolitan population grew to 8,963,663, an increase of 970,024 or 10%. This increase was the difference between the 1,032,818 gain in the suburban rings and the 87,057 loss in the central cities.

In non-metropolitan Illinois, the population grew to 2,210,911, an increase of 62,794 or 2.9%. Illinois has nine Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas (SMSAs), which contain 19 of the state's 102 counties.

Illinois SMSAs are located wholly within the state. They are: the Bloomington-Normal, Champaign - Urbana, Chicago, Decatur, Peoria, Rockford and Springfield SMSAs.

Rock Island and Henry Counties are part of the Davenport SMSA. Rock Island, Iowa-Ill. SMSA; and Madison and St. Clair Counties are part of the St. Louis, Mo.-Ill. SMSA.

The Chicago SMSA alone accounted for about 73% of the state's population increase and about 78% of the increase in metropolitan areas. Nearly two-thirds of the state's growing population lives in the Chicago SMSA.

In 1970, 84% of Illinois' metropolitan population was white, down from 87% in 1960. This drop reflected the rapid growth of the population of Negro and other races, which increased by 434,000 or 42% and the much slower growth of the white population, which increased by 538,000 or 37%. The non-metropolitan population was more than 97% white in both 1960 and 1970.

Illinois' population growth during the 1960-70 decade was produced by a natural increase of 1,076,000 (births minus deaths) and a net out-migration of 43,000.

In central cities there was a net out-migration of 204,000 and a natural increase of 417,000.

Metropolitan areas outside central cities, by contrast, grew equally through natural increase (534,000) and net in-migration (323,000).

Among the non-metropolitan portion of Illinois, a natural increase of 125,000 was sharply offset by a net out-migration of 62,000.

As in the nation generally, the age structure of the state's population shifted significantly during 1960-70.

Among whites, there was a 26% decline among children under 14 and a 4% decline among adults 25 to 44. These losses were offset by gains in all other broad age groups: 5 to 14 years, 13%; 15 to 24 years, 40%; 45 to 64 years, 7%; and 65 and over, 10%.

Among the population of Negro and other races, which increased 41% during the decade and comprised 14% of the state's population in 1970, gains were seen in each age group:

5 to 14 years, 13%; 15 to 24 years, 40%; 45 to 64 years, 7%; and 65 and over, 10%.

Love songs about the moon have thrilled lovers all over the world for thousands of years. The moon seems to be the guiding light to many a budding romance.

In fact, years ago, in Germany, no couple would think of getting married while the moon was full or waning. If they married under a waning moon, their love was sure to wane also. A full moon wasn't good because their luck would, at best, remain stationary. But, oh! The increasing moon would help their health, wealth and happiness to increase.

This was well and good for those bygone years, but think how young people nowadays are guided things like weather, vacation time and we'll get your wedding off to a glorious start... regardless of whether the moon is full or not.

Whatever you do, don't wait for the right moon to drop in and register with us as a Bride to Be. Your friends and family will be happy to see you in your Silver, China and Crystal patterns with us. The wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Dunlap, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lee Dunlap, 2902 Marshall Ave., and Roy Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Richard of Collinsville, took place Sept. 10 at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church.

A double-ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Groesch at 7 o'clock.

Sister Marilyn served as organist for Miss Vicki Mercer, vocalist, who sang the theme from Romeo and Juliet, The Lord's Prayer and "Ave Maria."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of ivory silk organza over taffeta designed with an Empire bodice applied in Peau de Ange lace and beaded in crystals and pearls. Long sheer sleeves ending in points at the wrists were applied in matching lace. The full skirt ended in a slightly sweeping chapel train.

Her triple-tiered veil of bridal illusion was held in place with a Juliet cap of Peau de Ange lace embellished with crystals and pearls.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Doris Dunlap, sister-in-law of the bride, from Avondale, Ariz. and Miss Beverly Dorch, Mrs. Holly Habermehl, Miss Karen Desherage and Miss Joni Rich-ard, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

Their floor length gowns were fashioned of antique gold chiffon styled with an Empire waistline that was trimmed in ivory lace and matching velvet ribbon.

The matron of honor was in a moss green gown of identical design.

Laura Mackina was flower girl and Michael Dunlap, a nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer. She was attired in a gown similar to the bride and carried a basket filled with flower petals.

Ronald Habermehl was best man serving with Gerald Schneider, Joe Strimman, Ronnie Stavley and Jack Swank as groomsmen. Ushers were Philip Hartman and Mike Schulte.

A reception was given at Holy Trinity Hall with music furnished by "The Cavaliers" of Collinsville. Miss Phyllis Hartman presided at the guest book.

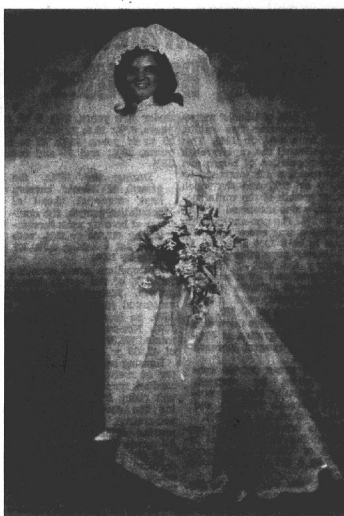

The couple spent their honeymoon in the Lake of the Ozarks and now live in Granite City. The bride is a 1968 graduate of Granite City High School and currently is a senior majoring in elementary education at SIU-SW.

Mr. Richard was graduated in 1968 from Collinsville High School and also is a senior at SIU-SW where he is majoring in business management.

Wallace Scores 13 as Warriors Beat Cahokia

By STEVE BURDGE
GCHS Football Writer

The Granite City football Warriors extended their victory record to 2-0 Saturday afternoon with a 19-6 victory at Cahokia. The Warriors gained their clear-cut win in a game sloppily played by both teams. The Warriors settled down in the second half to ice up their victory after earning a 6-0 half-time advantage.

Running back Stan Stajduhar again showed great effort and ability as he ran the ball 47 times for 287 yards.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 6 Mon., Sept. 27, 1971

Playing with an injured arm in both of Granite City's outings, he has rushed for a total of 289 yards in two games.

It looked as if the Warriors were going to get started quickly in the game. On the first two plays of the game, they picked up two first downs on runs by Stajduhar.

With the ball on the 43 of Cahokia, GCHS had a good drive underway. But two penalties halted the advance and Granite City was forced to punt. Starting on their own 14 yard line, after a clipping penalty, the Comanches also picked up two first downs on the running of Ronald Towne.

With the ball on Granite

City's 48, Cahokia Quarterback Dave Rowland unleashed a long aerial bomb to End Gary Kharibian, taking the ball all the way to the seven-yard-line.

The Warrior defense stepped in at this point and held four straight running plays short of the goal line by one yard, enabling the Warriors to take over on the one-yard-line.

On four plays, one by Joe Wallace and the others by Stajduhar, the Warriors moved the ball to the 37. After two more runs and a 15-yard penalty against Cahokia the ball was moved to Cahokia's 41.

From there, Stajduhar picked up 12 yards and two plays later ran for 12 yards, putting the ball on the 12-yard-line. After a two yard loss and two running plays, Wallace attempted and made a field goal of 26 yards, giving Granite City a 3-0 lead. 28 yards on one running play.

Wallace showed versatility by recovering an enemy fumble.

Later in the second quarter, GCHS again began moving the ball, with Clay Winfield in at quarterback. But a penalty again halted the drive.

After a punt was downed on the one-yard-line by Granite City, Cahokia began moving the ball, then fumbled deep in its own territory, Craig Stevens recovering, and GCHS took over on Cahokia's 14-yard-line.

Two running plays and a pass took the Warriors to the ten, where Wallace again kicked a 26-yard field goal to give his team a 6-0 lead.

After the kickoff, Cahokia started to roll and took the ball all the way to the Granite City 27. Dave Dealy had gained 28 yards on one running play.

A pass play then was broken up by Bob Wiggins in the end zone.

Pass interference was called on Granite City and gave Cahokia a first down on the 13. Another pass then was broken up by Tom Kalert.

Cahokia attempted a field goal with nine seconds left in the half but this attempt was broken up by Jeff Worthen of Granite City as he stormed in and broke up the play.

In the third quarter, Cahokia moved to the one, and then Fullback Mike Haywood took the ball over for a touchdown. The extra point attempt failed and Granite City led 12-6.

On the kickoff, Greg Becker of the Warriors returned the ball 27 yards to the GCHS 32. Wallace then took the ball over for a touchdown with 55 seconds left in the game.

After the extra point, a kick by Wallace, the Warriors had their 19-6 victory margin.

Most of Stajduhar's running yardage was aided by good blocking by the offensive line, and by Fullback Jim Robbers, who blocks to lead Stajduhar on most of the plays.

This week, the Warriors will host the Kahoks of Collinsville in a Friday night game.

BATTLING FOR THE BALL is Southern Illinois University-Southwestern's Tom Galati, right in white, in a soccer home opener against the University of Akron which the Cougars won 4-0. In the action is Akron's Joe Shivali, and in the background is Akron's Al American Rich Parkinson, who was stopped for the first time in his four-year collegiate career.

Cougar Kickers Down Akron 4-0

Coch Bob Guelker, whose Southern Illinois University-Southwestern soccer team opened its 1971 home season Saturday afternoon with a convincing 4-0 victory over a very strong University of Akron squad, is a comparatively recent convert to long-distance running as a conditioner for soccer players.

Prior to the 1970 campaign, Guelker had believed that his players got enough running, and consequently conditioning, in their regular games and scrimmages. But before the start of last season, the Cougars' trainer, Doc Bud Budell, himself a jogger, talked Guelker into adopting running (12-minute trials) as a part of his training regime.

Against the Akron Zips Saturday, the Cougars' superior conditioning, was obviously the difference. No less an authority than Akron's coach, Bill Killen, said: "I've never seen a soccer team, all its members, go at such top speed all through 80 minutes of soccer as SIU-SW did today against us. That little under right of yours, Deinoski (John), never stopped a second. He was all over the field just like a pesky mosquito."

Brothers Team Up
It was SIU-SW's big artillery, however, which got the opening salvos in as John Carencia, the Cougars' 6-4" candidate for All-American honors, put his team in front at 5:38 into the first period on an assist by his kid brother, Chris. Big John, down from his 225 pound playing weight of last season, is a lean, hard 200-pounder now and moving more around the field than high scorer.

Said Killen of Akron: "With Deinoski, Tom Twelman, Tommie Howe and at times, Tom Galati playing up front, plus Chris, the defense can no longer concentrate on John to stop the SIU-SW offense."

Big John scored the Cougars' second goal at 16:34 into the second period on a direct penalty kick, but it took him two tries to do it. On his first effort, his kick was to the left of the goal, but an Akron defender was in the penalty area and Big John got a second chance. There was no doubt on his second effort.

Chris Carencia made it 3-0 with a beautiful right-footer on a pass from Denny Driscoll, at 20:30 in the third period. Tommie Howe made it 4-0 at 6:05 in the fourth quarter on a neat assist from Tom Twelman.

It was the Akron coach, however, who pointed out the key role that SIU-SW's defense played in the game's outcome. Said Killen: "Your goalie, Rick Benben, is tremendous, and the backs in front of him are nothing less than sensational. Their teamwork and ball control were great."

The Cougars' two fullbacks, Rich Neitzert and Denny Driscoll, the two halfbacks, Tom Galati and Kevin Howe, plus the superb work of center halfback, Vince Fassi, kept the Akron at bay all afternoon, holding the Zips' offense, for example, to just three shots-on-goal in the crucial second period.

Overall, the Cougars took 42 shots-on-goal to Akron's 24. In corner kicks, SIU-SW had seven to the Zips' one. It was a rough game, with both teams being charged with 24 fouls.

Putnam Praised
Tim Putnam, who moves into Galati's defensive spot at right halfback when Tommy moves into the offense, drew praise from the Akron coach. "I don't see how Bob (Guelker) can keep him out of the lineup. SIU-SW came out of the rough Akron game relatively in good shape. They should be in top condition for its toughest test this coming Saturday when the Hawks of Rockhurst College of Kansas City comes calling at Cougar Field for a 1:30 p.m. contest.

Coch Tony Tocco's Rockhurst team, which battled the Cougars on even terms for three quarters at Kansas City last season before bowing 2-1, has practically the same squad back this season and should be even tougher.

It should be another good test of Coach Guelker's new game plan of getting his squad into the best physical shape possible and then running the opposition into the ground.

Madison Loses On Road, 46-0

The score! Oh, the score!

Fumbling eight times, the Madison High School grid Trojans never had much of a chance as they lost 46-0 to the Blue Devils at Maplewood, Mo., Friday night.

Four of the fumbles led directly to touchdowns.

In addition to its problems in holding onto the ball, Madison failed to complete any of its five passes and trailed the host eleven in gains on the ground, 134 to 45 yards.

The Blue Devils advanced 68 yards in completing four of 12 passes.

Maplewood scoring leaders were Bill Hayes, a 165-pound speedster who tallied three touchdowns on runs of seven, 10 and 15 yards; Tim Moore, 22-yard and 15-yard passes from quarterback Bob Raish; Kevin Burgess, a 15-yard TD run on a fumble recovery; and Mike Fuhrman, a 23-yard pass from Raish. Jeff Wilson kicked four extra points.

The longer pass to Moore started the scoring, and the fumble recovery which led to a touchdown followed immediately. The point parade continued and the score stood at 40-0 at halftime.

Ed Chandler led the MHS offense with 25 yards rushing on ten carries.

Although the Trojan defense could not count it as one of its better games, Madison was able to apply the brakes to most of the home team's advances in the second half. Maplewood finished with nine first downs to three for MHS.

Warrior Harriers Drop Test

The Granite City High School cross country team lost to Edwardsville Thursday and finished seventh in a field of 12 schools in a meet Saturday on the Southern Illinois University three-mile plus 70-yard course.

Warrior Howie Bryant set another cross country record at Edwardsville Thursday when he ran a three-mile hilly course to take first place in 16:26.

On record on the course was set last season by Jim Benson in 16:45, running for Belleville West.

Despite the fast legs of Bryant, the GCHS Harriers lost to Edwardsville 25-30.

Other Warriors finishing in the top 10 were Mike Adams, 3rd, 17:11; Mark Ortiz, 7th, 17:54; Tom Bull, 9th, 18:06; and Bruce Barger, 10th, 18:07.

The junior varsity team won its meet against Edwardsville 26-29.

Finishing for the JV's were Jeff Schleicher, 2nd, 18:04; Bob Pritchard, 4th, 19:08; Mike Moniz, 6th, 19:26; Rich Chandler, 8th, 19:55; and Chris Louis, 9th, 20:10.

Hazelwood, Mo., took first place at the meet at SIU-SW with a score of 55; Alton was second with 57; Mascoutah, third, 60; Lebanon, fourth, 65; Belleville West, fifth, 158; Belleville East, sixth, 158; Collinsville, eighth, 167; Triad, ninth, 215; Edwardsville, 10th, 255; Sumner, 11th, 57; and Jerseyville, 12th, 330.

The Virgin of Lebanon came in first at 14:47, breaking the track record that had been set by Bryant in 16:15 last week.

Bryant placed third in 16:07. Ed White of Mascoutah was second.

Other GCHS Harriers in the field of 84 runners were Adams, 25th, 17:10; Ortiz, 28th, 17:57; Barger, 42nd, 17:46; and Bull 58th, 18:13.

Barger was spiked in the ankle.

Have two doors kept you out of a Volkswagen?

Don't answer yet. The car in the picture is a Volkswagen. And, as you can see, it has four doors. It's our new 411 4-Door sedan.

Like most 4-door sedans, our 411 gives the people in the back almost as much room as the people in the front.

Unlike most 4-door sedans, though, there's also room for luggage in the front as well as in back.

Like most 4-door sedans, our 411 has an engine.

Unlike most 4-door sedans, our engine gets about twenty-two miles to the gallon.

Like most 4-door sedans, our 411 offers a lot of options. Automatic transmission, radial tires, rear-window defogger, to name a few.

Unlike most 4-door sedans, though, options are included in the price of the car. Now you can answer if you like:

Seniors, Lettermen Abound, GCHS Soccer Hopes Bright

The soccer season opens here Wednesday as the Granite City High School Warriors host St. John's of St. Louis for 90 minutes of battle to determine if the Warriors are as good this year as they were last.

Last year's squad, coached by Tom Wyrostek and Stan Wojcik, earned 12 victories, lost only one, and tied four. Of the starting lineup on this year's Warriors squad, 10 of the 11 men played last year. The main missing ingredients from last year are Bobby Galvin and Wayne Canada, the super-stars of the 1970 Warrior Kickers.

One of the big questions may be how the Warriors will function without them. Galvin scored 22 goals, 13 unassisted, last year and was credited with four assists in 14 games. Canada was second with 15 goals and seven assists.

Another factor is the loss of Clay Windfield, a starter last year, who reported for football.

The Warriors, under new Coach John Sellmeyer, will be given the first opportunity to prove themselves at 4 p.m. Wednesday on the home field against St. John's, a team that is favored for the top spot in its small league of seven provincial schools.

Goalkeeper Returns

Returning to the goalkeeping spot this year will be Glenn Williams who shared the duties last year with Jeff Worthen. Worthen was credited with never having played in a losing game but Williams, who was at the net during the team's only loss, also was responsible for the season's nine shutouts.

Williams also is a senior and a letterman.

Prospects appeared bright but Coach Sellmeyer expects to draw upon underclass talent in preparation for next year.

"I hope to be strong in that backfield and I think we have a strong offense," Sellmeyer commented, and added he did not think St. John's will be as good as is rumored.

"With this team I am very optimistic about the outcome of Wednesday's game," he added.

Brand X Funny Car Wins Title

About 400 cars took part in the $35,000 Manufacturers' Cup Funny Car Championship yesterday at St. Louis International Raceway south of Madison.

The top funny car of the day was the St. Louis and Lankford Brand X Mustang driven by Cecil Lankford, which completed the quarter-mile run in 6.98 seconds with a finishing speed of 201.63 miles per hour.

The L. A. Hooker of Gene Beaver, Los Angeles, was to have provided the competition for the Brand car, but a blown engine at the starting line gave the championship to Lankford.

Paul Gordon in the Red Baron funny car and the Don Hardy, Ramchargers powered Banshee Cuda, were eliminated in the semi-final round. Favorite Arme "the farmer" Bewick in the Trans-Am Firebird was eliminated in the first round.

The Wofford Brothers Camaro, driven by Vernon Wofford of St. Louis, was the winner of the Pro-Stock competition.

Scores Six Goals

The Granite City Steel Management Club soccer team of the Junior Pos We division defeated the Mitchell A.C. Rockets 10 to 1 in a game at the Mitchell Athletic Club field Thursday afternoon. Brian Levin of the Granite City Steel team scored six goals. Rick Branding scored two and Barry Grote two.

Enforcement of Open Burning Ban Limited

Granite City has the procedure to enforce new state regulations banning open burning, but enforcement likely will be limited to the burning of garbage, tar paper, dead trees and other offensive materials until an orderly enforcement program can be established, Henry Bienenicki, chairman of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, said today.

Bienenicki said Professor Irwin C. Hoelscher, technical secretary of the board, has the power to investigate complaints of open burning and submit complaints to the Granite City Police Department which can issue summonses. Enforcement probably will be limited until the board can meet with Mayor Donald Partney, City Council special committees and city legal advisors to establish a workable program of enforcement.

PARENTS OF HEARING IMPAIRED PICK NEW NAME

The area parents' group for hearing impaired children began its new year Thursday night at Lake School.

It was voted to change the name of the organization from Bi-County Parents for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children to "Southwest Regional Parent Group." The program is being broadened to include seven counties in southwestern Illinois.

A pot luck dinner preceded the business session, which was presided over by Steve Gargac, president. Reports were submitted, including announcement that a $150 donation has been received from the Illinois Rural Letter Carriers Auxiliary.

Teachers employed in the program had met at 4:30 p.m. with Jim Sloan, supervisor, for in-service training; 100% of the teachers were present and then were dinner guests of the parents' group.

Also present were three area special education directors, Mrs. Elvira Kuergels, director of Special Education District Region I, Granite City; Madison and Venice public schools; Harry Bergner, special education director for the Cahokia area; and John Collier, Alton

Wood River special education director.

Sloan reported on progress of the program, and Mrs. Kuergels told of regional planning for low-incidence handicaps, including deaf and hard of hearing, blind and partially sighted, physically handicapped and multiply handicapped.

She reported that a $5,000 "mini" grant has been received from the state for preliminary planning for the hearing impaired, and a matching grant is anticipated for preliminary planning for the other three areas.

The group voted to give each of the 12 classrooms $25 for purchase of needed materials or supplies not furnished by the districts.

News reporters from each area were selected to furnish items for a monthly newsletter compiled by Mrs. Gail Gargac. Legislative Chairman Charles Scully urged all to write the governor urging approval of House Bill 69 to increase the present reimbursement of teacher salaries.

A vote was taken to renew the organization's membership in the Alexander Graham Bell International Parents Organization. Mrs. Gargac announced that work will begin soon on a new program brochure, replacing the present one published two years ago. Supt. Wilbur Trimpe is cooperating in the project.

Future meetings of the Illinois Parents of Hearing Impaired annual "state days" Oct. 8 and 10 at the School for the Deaf, Jacksonville.

Jim Grote, chairman of the scholarship committee, announced that the first award has been made to Karen Spengler, a student at Illinois State University, Normal, who will graduate in January 1973 with a degree in deaf education.

One of the projects for the year will be making St. Elizabeth Hospital tray cards. The class will contact the Carmi Children's Home for Christmas gift lists for the children.

New members enrolled were Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mrs. Molly Hutson. Others present were Mesdames Hazel Atchison, Blanche Edwards, Alma Garand, Ruth Hopkins, Laura Maples, Goldie Reilly, Florence Simpson, Nancy Turner, Paul ine Weir and a guest, Mrs. Bonnie Pruitt.

The next meeting will be Oct. 21 with Mrs. Atchison as hostess.

PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH TO WELCOME NEW PASTOR

Peace Lutheran Church Women resumed their monthly meetings last week following the summer vacation. Mrs. Carol Gendron, president, welcomed all to the meeting, held at the church, and introduced Mrs. Faye Miller of Collinsville, wife of the new pastor.

Pastor Miller will be dividing his time between Peace Church and Our Lord's Lutheran Church in Collinsville. A church wide pot luck supper is planned for Sunday, Oct. 3, to welcome the pastor and his family.

Mrs. Elsie Unger was appointed chairman of the event, and will be assisted by Mrs. Maria Knappack. The supper will begin at 5:30 p.m.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Gendron on "Have to Have Someone to Talk to God."

Plans were discussed for a father-son banquet later in the year.

The Morning Group was reorganized and will meet on each first Wednesday at the church. Mrs. Inge Modric is chairman of the group. Items will be made for Lutheran World Relief and will include quilts and activity kits.

Mrs. Elsie Hastings announced that the Church Women United will have a booth at the United Fun Fair and that workers are needed to staff the booth, as well as donations for a "Country Kitchen." The booth also will include "mod" and religious posters and autumn flower arrangements.

Mrs. Rachel Larsen will represent the church at an Oct. 20 St. Louis district meeting of Lutheran Church Women at St. Mark's Church.

Mrs. Elone Kinder presented the program for the evening, "Employed Women," and a discussion followed.

Mrs. Modric, hostess, served refreshments to those named and Mrs. Glenda Kirker of Collinsville, a former member of Peace Church, and Mesdames Nona Burris, Chris Chernoff, Joyce Lawson, Betty McClintock, Dagmar Phoenix, Mariotte Schocker, Elizabeth Messerschmidt and Betty Witting.

The next meeting Oct. 19 will be at the home of Mrs. Pat Moore, 3243 Erin Drive; topic will be "The Woman in Her Later Years."

Legislature Hoping to Unravel Election Snarl

By BOB ESTILL
Copley News Service

Springfield—Changes in election dates and procedures are among the headlines left over from the regular session which lawmakers will have to consider when they return to work Oct. 12.

Among pending bills in the General Assembly are measures changing the primary election date, establishing procedures for the lieutenant governor to run with the governor as a team, as mandated by the new Constitution, and setting up the mechanics for judges to run in primaries.

Under the present law, candidates for county, state and federal offices will file petitions between Dec. 13 and Dec. 20 to be eligible for the March 21 primary. However, there's a House-approved bill moving the primary to the third Tuesday in May and also changing the filing time. Another bill, which has been held on first reading, moves the primaries to the fourth Tuesday in August, further shortening the campaign time.

Changing the primary dates also would affect the dates for the state party conventions at which University of Illinois trustee candidates, presidential electors and delegates and alternates to the national party conventions are picked.

The state conventions are held by law on the first Friday after the second Monday following the primary election.

As a practical matter, both parties generally hold only a "perfunctory" session on the legal date and return later in the summer to actually name trustee candidates and delegates.

Candidates for state and federal offices aren't nominated at these party conventions. Republican candidates are slated through a primary, while Chicago Mayor Richard Daley, with the nodding aid of state central committee members and Democratic leaders, picks the Democratic candidates at a meeting generally held in November.

County clerks statewide are hopeful the lawmakers will pass a bill, setting county board primary and general election dates to coincide with regular elections.

If the legislature takes no action, there'd be a primary in February and a general election in April for county board members and a March primary and November general election for county, state and federal offices.

Les Jones, legal consultant to Secretary of State John Lewis Jr., said the extra elections required under the present law could cost taxpayers as much as $6 million.

He noted that because the registration system closes 28 days before an election, there would be a three-month period with no registrations if the law isn't altered.

Additionally, counties using voting machines would have to buy a second set of ballots, voting machines and voting devices must be locked up for 30 days after the official canvass is made.

Jones said it would "appear impossible or certainly impractical" to conduct elections in three consecutive months.

The legislature also will have to consider ways for the governor and lieutenant governor to run as a team, preventing a future repeat of what happened in 1968 when Republican Gov. Richard Ogilvie and Democratic Lt. Gov. Paul Simon were elected.

The constitution leaves it up to the lawmakers to determine whether the governor or lieutenant governor will be paired in the primary or selected as a team by party conventions. Also left to the lawmakers is the establishing of procedures for electing judges by primaries. Under the current law, the judges were nominated by judicial conventions.

Ecology Likely To Delay Major State Highways

By JOAN MURARO
Copley News Service

Springfield—Construction of major highways in Illinois in the future will probably be delayed by six to seven years in order to meet all federal requirements for environmental protection and other ecological considerations, state highway division officials say.

Presently, each time a new highway is planned, copies of the plans must be sent to between 170 and 180 federal, state and local agencies, according to Matthew Macchio, head of the location unit in the highway division's bureau of design.

Particular emphasis is placed on agencies with "special expertise in human environment." Macchio said, "and that the groups range from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Housing and Urban Development Department, the Department of Fish and Hatcheries, Department of Outdoor Recreation, various state and federal clearing houses, city, county and regional planning agencies and under the State Department of Children and Family Services."

After all agencies have reported back any objections they might have to the proposed project or its location, public hearings must be held and all progress to date must be evaluated and then sent to the Council on Environmental Quality, in Washington.

With constantly rising construction costs, a six to seven-year delay is almost certain to mean a substantial increase in cost before the project is completed. "These are all important things, and should be considered," Macchio said, "and we certainly don't want to cause any problems by our projects. But it is currently estimated that the elapsed time in the future between the time a proposal is first made to build a road, and the time construction actually can start, will be six to seven years."

Aside from obvious questions of whether a proposed highway would contribute to pollution in a given area, Macchio said, the groups consulted evaluate the road's impact on local health conditions and such economic aspects as future employment, as well as conservation considerations of whether the road will disturb local wildlife, or breeding grounds.

No additional staff has been added by the highway division to handle the spiraling paper work, Macchio said, since much of the work is handled by local staffs in the areas involved.

Macchio added that Illinois in some instances, such as current Interstate construction, is a bit lucky in that the state was already doing many of these things before they became federal requirements and, therefore, enough preliminary work already had been done on some projects that work was able to progress with comparatively little additional delay.

Draft to Resume Here; 141 Called for Exams

Nearly every qualified young man with a draft lottery number of 25 or lower will be called and may be in uniform within two weeks after President Richard M. Nixon signs the new draft bill, Washington sources said this week. The Senate passed a bill extending the Selective Service System last week.

Selective Service officials may call young men with a lottery number of 50 or below in 1972 lottery, or those with numbers of 140 or below from previous lotteries if necessary to fulfill the 16,000 July-August call which was left hanging when the draft expired.

In Madison County, almost 150 young men reported for draft physical examinations during the freeze on inductions, and may be called as soon as the bill is signed. No October calls have yet been received here, officials noted.

Calls for physical examinations here in October have been issued, with 141 men ordered to report. The number includes 63 from the Granite City board Oct. 15, 52 from Alton Oct. 21, and 46 from the Edwardsville office Oct. 14.

SCHERMER BULLETIN:

We now have many of the Weight Watcher's items so many of our fine customers have been asking for. Delivery on these items is slow, so be patient — we will have a complete line in the very near future. Also, if you need a certain amount of meat for your Weight Watcher's diet, feel free to ask any of our friendly butchers to cut and weigh it for you. We do offer service meat. If you wish to have ground veal, please give us a few days advance notice.

We now have Boone's Farm Strawberry Hill and Boone's Farm Apple wine. Several people have asked for it, and as usual, your wish is our command.

Favorable comments about our store are still coming in. We certainly do appreciate them. Even though we are involved in the "price freeze", we are not cutting back on discontinuing any of the special services to our customers. As far as we know, we are still the only store in this area that cheerfully offers full and complete carryout service. This will continue to be our store policy.

Wage-Price Freeze

Creates City Problem

Granite City may need to activate its negotiating committee to develop a new vacation schedule for city employees for the current calendar year or go into 1972 with a newly arranged vacation program according to Alderman Clyde Boyd.

The problem grows out of President Nixon's 90-day wage-price freeze announced Aug. 14 and scheduled to continue through Nov. 12. Boyd said the Fire Department's vacation schedule particularly is affected by the freeze order, and "I imagine other city departments are similarly affected."

He said additional vacations granted by the city as fringe benefits in the new city employee contracts cannot be allowed until after the freeze is lifted, and that even then it is not known how extensively the President's promised supplementary control program will affect the schedules.

Trust Bank Dress-a-Doll Contest Opens This Week

A merrier Christmas for needy youngsters is the Trust Bank's goal of the Christmas Dress-a-Doll 4th annual contest, which opens this week at Granite City Trust and Savings Bank to provide colorfully dressed gift dolls for less fortunate children in the area.

The Dress-a-Doll contest is a prize contest in which Granite City Trust furnishes all of the dolls and prizes, while individual contestants donate their time and skill to sew original costumes for them.

Anyone who wishes to help give a heart-warming Christmas gift to a deserving child may enter the contest now by applying at Granite City Trust where they may pick up a free doll to design and sew an original costume.

These dolls, furnished by the bank, stand 18 inches tall and are dressed in shoes, stockings and underclothing. Contestants finish dressing the doll in any one of six different design categories.

The choice of design categories includes fancy dress, sensible dress, nationality costume, storybook character, knit and crocheted, and a special category limited to children under 15 years.

Granite City Trust awards individual prizes in each of the six categories, plus an overall grand prize for the best dressed doll in the contest.

Contestants have from now until Nov. 19 to complete the costume and return the doll to the bank for prize judging and display. Dress-a-Doll contest judges will be selected and announced at a later date.

Immediately following the prize judging, all of the Dress-a-Doll entries will be on public display in the lobby of Granite City Trust and Savings Bank until 2 weeks before Christmas.

At that time, they will be turned over to Granite City agencies to be distributed as Christmas gifts for children of the area who might otherwise be missed at Christmas.

The vice-president, Mrs. Della Hubbs, presided and Mrs. Dickerson and Mrs. Gussie Henshaw gave reports. Mrs. Henry reported on the sick, shut-ins and those observing birthdays.

Roll call was answered with Scripture verses and it was decided to give a special offering to state missions. Mrs. Knight, 1923 Benton St., will be the hostess Oct. 19.

DR. JOSEPH SIM
Pedodontist

SIU-SW Orthodontist Says Regular Eating Habits Vital to Child's Teeth

"We all know that the great, est sedative for younger children is food, but the damage that food can do to children's teeth is often not realized by the parents," says Dr. Joseph Sim, a pedodontist.

Dr. Sim specializes in dentistry for children and heads the Department of Pedodontics at the School of Dental Medicine, Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

"One of the best family practices is to see that children eat at regular meal times and avoid a snack, particularly sticky sweets," Dr. Sim said.

To support his plea for regular eating habits, Dr. Sim points out that a child's mouth, in general, is a relatively clean area. "In the four hours people have between meals the saliva dilutes sugar and acids and really does a pretty good job of cleaning the mouth. But it takes at least a long for the natural process to be effective. When a child has a snack or two of rich foods between each meal and then doesn't eat properly at meal time, the mouth never has a chance to rest," Dr. Sim said.

Dr. Sim is a proponent of early visits by the youngster to his dentist. Dr. Sim himself likes to see children by the age of 18 months. He says if the child is taken to the dentist early and the parents and children follow the advice of the dentist, many times the child can be assured of few or no cavities during a lifetime.

In addition to decay there are other potential problems that a dentist will check for in the mouths of young children, Dr. Sim said.

The dentist will watch for tooth eruption difficulties, gum conditions and potential problems involving the child's bite.

It is Dr. Sim's belief that within 10 years there is a good prospect that answering major dental health care needs of children may be part of a national program.

One possibility for solving major problems is a pre-paid program for children's health, similar to medicare-medicaid for elder citizens. "Middle-aged people have options, and may choose whether or not to be concerned with their health. The very old often have to depend on someone else," Dr. Sim said.

Immunization Program
He believes there is a very good possibility that within the next decade there will be an immunization program for children against dental decay. He points out, however, that decay represents only 30 to 50% of oral health concerns in children and that there are other dental health needs to be maintained or corrected.

A third route to correct major problems, and one which is open now to most children, is regular visits to a dentist.

"However," Dr. Sim added, "there are no mistakes views. We can cite the major needs of children or anyone in regard to health, but those needs are not the same as everyone would avail themselves of the care."

Dr. Sim has three general interest areas in pedodontics. He is greatly interested in better dental care for all disadvantaged children. Five years ago, he helped organize the Southern Association of Institutional Dentists, a group who work in institutions and meet to outline better ways to serve the mentally retarded and special problem children.

A second major interest is in speech and swallowing problems as related to dental architecture and the third interest is preventing and intercepting orthodontic problems which occur in younger children.

Dr. Sim holds the rank of associate professor. He came here from the University of Alabama where he taught clinical and hospital pedodontics. He earned his D.D.S. and master's degree in pedodontics at the University of Washington, Seattle. He was engaged in private practice in the state of Washington from 1957 to 1964.

Optimists to Install on River Trip Wednesday

Installation of new officers of the Granite City Optimist Club will take place at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday on the Mississippi Belle, aboard the Mississippi Belle.

Ted Ellerman will be installed as president during the "ship-board ceremonies" while Leo H. Konzen will be installed as first vice-president and Maurice Dailey will become second vice-president.

Ellerman replaces the Rev. Paul Surbey, current president. Konzen was re-elected to a vice-presidential post and Dailey fills the vacancy left by Ellerman.

Other officials to be installed include William Monical as secretary and John McDonald Jr., treasurer, both re-elected. Ray Hanley will become sergeant-at-arms, and Larry Pieper, Rev. Surbey and G. H. Sternberg will be installed as directors.

Following the one hour installation cruise, from 6 to 7 p.m., the Optimists and wives present will return to the St. Louis waterfront where they will board the Goldenrod Showboat for dinner and the old-time movie, "The Drunkard."

Plans for the installation were finalized at the club's regular meeting Thursday at the YMCA. At that meeting Ray Hanley, an agent for Connecticut Mutual Insurance Co., spoke on the company's role in financing housing in Granite City when the city first started 75 years ago.

His talk was based on the book "Life and Death," a history of the company and an explanation of the business of selling insurance.

Hanley has been with the insurance firm 13 years and has been a member of the Million Dollar Roundtable four years. The Roundtable was created to honor insurance salesmen who sell over a million insurance in any one year.

Members were told that because of the special installation program, there will be no meeting Thursday.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN M. BERGSCHNEIDER who were married Aug. 28 at Nameoki United Methodist Church. The bride is the former Miss Valerie Sue Landess, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Landess, 2332 Miracle Ave.

Hartwick-Hogan Wedding at St. Peter's United Church

Mrs. Donna Faye Hogan and Leroy J. Hartwick were married Saturday evening at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ.

The Rev. Paul R. Surbey, pastor of St. John United Church of Christ, heard the couple exchange their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick were attended by Mrs. Dorothy Branz of Fairview Heights, Ill., and William Wheeler of East Alton, a brother of the bridegroom.

The former Mrs. Hogan selected a double-knit suit dress in charcoal grey wool. The frock, designed with a grey and white striped bodice and short sleeves, had a tailored jacket trimmed in white braid. Her accessories were in a complementary color and she wore a corsage of white carnations entwined with sprigs of lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor chose a chestnut brown suit, fashioned with a tunic jacket over a white crepe blouse with full Bishop sleeves. She had matching accessories and her flowers were yellow-dinted carnations.

Members of the couple's immediate families were guests at a reception given at the home of the bride following the ceremony.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Inglima and family of Independence, Mo.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick will make their home in Granite City.

The bride is employed as a general news reporter at the Granite City Press-Record. Her husband is employed in the stereotype department at the Press-Record and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Bergschneider-Landess Wedding Nuptials Held

Miss Valerie Sue Landess, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Landess, 2332 Miracle Ave., and John Michael Bergschneider, a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Bergschneider of Edwardsville, were married at Nameoki United Methodist Church on Aug. 28.

The Rev. William Pester performed the ceremony at 7 p.m. Miss Janice Huggins, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" and The Lord's Prayer, accompanied at the organ by Miss Marlene Metemacher.

The bride selected a full-length dress of white lace over tulle designed with a sheer lace yoke, stand up collar and long Bishop sleeves ending with cuffs embellished with pearls. An Empire waistline was emphasized with a white satin ribbon.

Her floor-length bridal veil of illusion was secured with a lace bonnet trimmed with a pale pink ribbon. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white miniature carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Cheryl Landess, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor serving with Miss Theresa Friederich and Miss Lorrie Eagles as bridesmaids. Miss Deborah Nichols, junior bridesmaid, and Linda Nichols, flower girl, are nieces of the groom. All the attendants and the flower girl were dressed alike in pink and white flocked pink voile over tulle, designed with Empire waists and gathered skirts. Pink velvet bows secured tiered nose tip veils. They carried nosegays of pink carnations and pink sweetheart roses tied with white streamers.

Richard Ahlvers was best man serving with Douglas DeRosier; Marty Landess, a brother of the bride and Carl Horstmeier, as groomsmen and ushers.

Mrs. Landess chose a green lace A-line dress with beige accessories and Mrs. Bergschneider selected a pink knit dress complimented with black accessories. Their corsages were of pink sweetheart roses.

A reception for wedding guests was given at the Elks Lodge immediately following the ceremony.

The former Miss Landess graduated from Granite City High School in 1970 and is attending SIU-SW. Her husband is a 1964 graduate of Collinsville High School and is employed at Ted's Auto Repair in Granite City.

Time Ripe for Southern Illinois University

Board to Sharply Reduce Closed Meetings

Carbondale Mayor Neal Eckert last week asked Governor Richard B. Ogilvie to request the resignations of members of the Southern Illinois University board. His reason was alleged violation of the state "open meetings" law. Dr. Earl Walker, an Ogilvie appointee to the SIU trustee board, said he no longer will attend closed meetings of the board, in the belief that topics discussed in them should be talked about openly.

The suggestion of resignations has been properly rejected by the governor; the board has been under too much state pressure anyway, most if it unfair, in recent months. It is a good board.

But the idea of much sharper limitations on executive sessions is one that the trustees should discuss and act on.

The practice of scheduling closed meetings for the day preceding a regular monthly meeting allows for extensive private discussions that it clearly borders on infringement of the rule requiring open meetings except in certain property and employment studies. Even in such buying-hiring-firing matters, and in all other business, final action must be taken publicly.

This County One of the Healthiest in Area

But Incidence of Heart Deaths Increasing

Madison County remains one of the healthiest areas of Southern Illinois; its death rate from heart disease is 61st lowest among the 66 counties in the Illinois area of the Bi-State Regional Medical Program, latest reports showed during the weekend.

While the statistics are encouraging when this county is compared with others, they also disclose a need for a continued fight against heart ailments and their causes.

The death rate in Southern Illinois from heart disease per 100,000 persons rose 5% in the decade ending in 1969, from 147.2 to 155.2. Total number of heart disease deaths showed an even higher increase during that period, rising 8% from 11,079, in 1960 to 11,925 in 1969.

Bi-State RMP is a federally-funded but regionally-governed agency working with health professionals in Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois to improve health care and contain its cost.

"One of the Program's concerns," says Dr. William Stoneman, Bi-State RMP coordinator, "is to find ways of reversing the rising death tolls of the major disease killers, foremost of which is heart disease."

In this connection, Dr. Stoneman notes the Program has provided continuation funding for a coronary intensive care training program for this region's nurses. Result of the project, headquartered in St. Louis University and now entering its second year of operation, will be improved care for coronary patients in the coronary intensive care units of the region's hospitals.

Bi-State RMP also has made a study of the percentage of heart deaths to total deaths for the 60s. For Southern Illinois as a whole, heart disease is accounting for about the portion of total deaths, up only 1% from 1960 to 43.2% in 1969. However, in Madison County, the percentage of heart deaths to total deaths in 1960 was 40.6% and in 1969 42.3%. This represents an increase in heart disease deaths from 756 in 1960 to 938 in 1969.

Death rate per 100,000 population for this county shifted from 336.5 in 1960 to 381.3 in 1969. Highest death rate per 100,000 for the county during the ten-year span occurred in 1969 with a rate of 381.3 and the lowest was 327.7 in 1965.

The county in southern Illinois with the largest increase in death rate per 100,000 was Fultoni, which increased from 467.1 to 1023.2 during the decade. The county with the largest decline in rate was Jackson, which decreased from 469.7 to 311.9 during the decade.

Dr. Stoneman explains that some of the differences in rates between counties can be accounted for by variables such as median age level or population shifts. Attempts are being made by the Program to isolate these variables and determine the extent of their effect on heart deaths in this region.

Savings, Loan Associations in Stat Helping To Make Possible a Rise in Home Building

Savings and loan associations in Illinois are expected to supply a record volume of $3 billion of financing this year to assist families in purchasing new or existing homes, the annual convention of the Illinois Savings and Loan League was told this weekend by John E. Stipp, president of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago. It is good news, in view of the need for housing, and is being reflected in the Quad-Cities by an increased volume of home construction.

The financing will be double the amount loaned by the 477 FHLB-member associations on mortgages in 1968. The volume of their greatest lending volume in history, says Stipp, whose institution serves associations in both Illinois and Wisconsin. Previous lending peak for Illinois was $2.1 billion in 1968, he told the savings and loan leaders from all over the state gathered in the Chase Park Plaza Hotel.

This tremendous upswing in S&L financing, making possible a sharp revival in housing, puts this unique combination of the S&L housing industries in the limelight of the nation's economic recovery," Stipp commented. "It is a powerful force in putting the nation back on a sound economic footing and will likely be a major force in the 1972 economic expansion. Any increase in housing activity always is an important factor in raising employment."

This year, increasing efforts are being made to reach families in low and middle income categories. New lending programs devised by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board in Washington, D. C., make it possible for savings and loan associations to provide conventional mortgages on medium and low income housing.

Included in these programs are monthly-payment subsidies, 95% loans and other benefits.

An assistance vehicle now gaining greater acceptance is the Housing Opportunity Allowance Program, which makes available to qualified middle-income families a mortgage-payment subsidy for $20 per month for the first five years of the loan. The Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago is one of the two most active regional banks in the nation in this program.

Rev. Dr. Lynn Was Active Community Leader

The report of the death of the Rev. Dr. A. Ralph Lynn is saddening. Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Granite City for many years, he headed the Granite City Rotary Club and Rotary District 646. Since retiring and moving to the Alton area, he had been associate pastor of the Alton Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Lynn was one of the most able and dedicated church and community leaders in our memory. He will be missed by the many thousands who knew him in the Quad-Cities and a wide surrounding area.

Couple Injured as Car Strikes Pole

A Granite City couple injured when their auto went out of control on Madison Avenue Sunday afternoon, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and struck the guy wires of a utility pole at 2:10 a.m. Sunday.

The auto of Hans P. Wirtz, 28, of 162 Brammar Lane, was southbound on Madison Avenue when the auto struck three guy wires of an Illinois Power Co. pole, pulling the pole loose and downing power lines, including a 60,000 volt line, police reported.

Police said he then drove from the scene but the auto's engine was damaged and it stopped at 18th Street and Grand Avenue where he was arrested and charged with reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident.

He, and his wife, Mrs. Marie Wirtz, 18, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by ambulance and were admitted. He suffered a cut to the back of his head by the pole, and Mrs. Wirtz suffered contusions and abrasions to her forehead and right leg and a small cut above her right eye.

Short-Change Artists Fail in $10 Attempt

A pair of young short-change artists failed in an attempt to manipulate a $10 bill into profit at the expense of Roberta Crook, a waitress at Woolworth's Store, 19th Street and Edison Avenue, it was reported at 3:40 p.m. Friday.

She said the first man obtained change for a $10 bill and then after another came to the counter, ordered a soda, obtained change for a $1 bill and then claimed that he had given her a $10 bill with a phone number on it. She said the man then left, but she did find the bill with the phone number, apparently left by the first man.

MORE ABOUT Jr. College

form its own district, but it would be preferable to include Collinsville, Edwardsville and perhaps Greenville to provide more students and a larger tax base, he said.

A community college would have an enrollment of about 1,000 before it is funded by the state, Wellman added.

Wellman said the Lewis & Clark junior college district at Alton, the Belleville district or the East St. Louis community college are one of three in the state where students attend without paying tuition, the executive said.

An assessed valuation of $75 million is required for a district, and the amount may be doubled, but the minimum population to be served is 30,000, which also may be doubled.

He said that an area could annex to another district, form its own or do nothing and hope that no legislation is passed. But, on the other hand, the State Junior College Board would be empowered to take a "free" day pass for the YMCA.

Time Table

Schermer questioned the time table proposed by the bill. Wellman said this area would have the time to initiate plans by the July 1 date.

Edward Kellogg, manager of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, said some can see no purpose to be served by a junior college with a state university in this area.

Dr. Wellman pointed to the differences between a junior college and university and cited junior college districts in Champagne, at Carleville near Carbondale, and at DeKalb where there has been "excellent growth" for the junior college.

He said the state has a mandate to provide educational opportunities for all its citizens.

Constitutionality of the pending legislation was questioned, and Wellman agreed that it could be appealed to the State Supreme Court. He stressed that the state has a mandate to provide educational opportunities for all its citizens.

He said that at one time certain areas of the state were without high schools and legislation was passed requiring the establishment of high schools in those districts. One member of the audience said he could see no analogy between the two.

State Pays 35%. Wellman said that the state pays about 35% of the operation cost of a junior college and would pay for original fixed equipment.

Another person in the audience asked if this area has excellent facilities in the adult education program at Granite City High School.

Dr. Wellman said there is no intention to duplicate programs, and in some areas the two boards—school and junior college—work together.

Wellman noted a trend to divert potential university freshmen and sophomores into junior colleges and to reserve universities for upper divisions and the graduate level.

Schermer asked if the junior college program was not "20 years to late," as the peak of population growth was reached in the 1960s.

"We don't think so," Wellman said. "Any population or economic decreases would affect just junior colleges, and the state is careful to avoid overbuilding."

Games, Carnival on Fun Fair Program

Wind up your pitching arm for the United Fun Fair for money and games to be offered Sunday, Saturday and Sunday from 1-9 p.m. Everything from balloons and candy to stuffed teddy bears and an AM-FM radio will be offered to takers in the Fun Fair booths.

The City Area Y2CA will have its traditional basketball free throw contest at its booth at the Fun Fair. These persons participating will be given 5 shots for a ticket. Anyone making 3 out of 5 will be given a "free" day pass for the YMCA.

Little Federal Funding. He added that "We cannot count on significant amounts from the federal government for the next year or two."

He said maximum tax rates are 75 cents per $100 valuation for the educational fund and 10 cents for the building fund. At this time, the authorized rates generally are 20 or 25 cents, plus bond and interest rates, and the average extension now is 16 1/2 cents for the combined educational and building rates.

Wellman also said it would be "more economical to keep the tax money here." If this area annexes to another district, a new campus could be developed here, he asserted.

MORE ABOUT GC Steel

Steel will be located here. To the extent that I and the group associated with me in Pittsburgh become involved locally, it will do more here and not in Pittsburgh.

"We have a very small corporate staff located in Pittsburgh. Its small size shows how much we are decentralized."

He told the Press-Record, "Its great strength is that it deals with all of the economic problems. It treats the international monetary and trade situation as a closely related part of the domestic economic problems."

"It is very heartening to see the government prepared to take strong action on all the fronts: monetary, international trade, domestic inflation and the need for a more dynamic economy."

An advisory committee is supporting the economic program as a member of the Committee for New Prosperity.

begin working soon to clean up the banks of the lake.

The labor will be provided by Madison County Federal work program and will be free of cost to the village.

"All we have to furnish is a truck and we can use the men as long as necessary," Staicoff said. "We are going to do our best to clean up our area," he pledged.

Seek Postal Branch
Staicoff read the board a letter which he sent to Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) requesting his assistance in starting a substation post office in Pontion Beach.

"We have tripled in size in the last nine years and it is time we had our own post office," Staicoff said.

In other business the board approved a motion by Trustee John Cole that all bills must be filed with the village treasurer 10 days before they can be approved, with the exception of monthly bills.

"This will avoid a recent trend to submit bills at the last minute," Staicoff explained.

Assessor Urges Quick Return of Tax Schedules

Granite City taxpayers who are receiving personal property assessment schedules by mail this week are urged to return them to the township assessor's office as soon as possible to aid the office in completing the 1971 assessment books. Assessor James Barton said today.

Schedules have been mailed only to those taxpayers who must be returned to the personal property tax books as the result of an Illinois Supreme Court ruling that nullified last year's referendum on a constitutional amendment which eliminated personal property taxes as to individuals and business establishments.

Because of the ruling, personal taxes must be reinstated on second auto owned by individuals, personal property of commercial firms that are not incorporated and on bank share holders.

The reassessment of this property does not affect exemptions allowed last year for one automobile and household furnishings. Barton's office pointed out that assessment schedules were mailed to taxpayers who had been given the additional exemption under the constitutional amendment, but that the status of some of these may have changed within the past year.

Any taxpayers who have a question as to his status under the changing assessment regulations may call the assessor's office at 877-6150, or appear in person at the office, 2037 State St. Barton said his office also will take schedule information by telephone and will fill out schedules at the office for those who prefer to appear in person.

Gabriel Delegate to Park Convention

Henry Gabriel, president of the Granite City Park Board, has been selected as delegate to the Illinois Association of Park Districts and the Illinois Recreation Society joint conference Nov. 19 to 21 in St. Louis.

In other business the board congratulated Frank Rea, director of the recent park district golf tournament, on his work during the activity and pledged that the tournament would become an annual event. The board appropriated $36 to pay Rea for his time in conducting the tournament.

Permit to use park district equipment was granted to three groups, including the homecoming committee of Granite City High School which requested use of the portable stage Oct. 13 and 14 for activities in the boys' gymnasium. The Knights of Columbus were granted permission to utilize the Wilson Park baseball diamond if necessary for a playoff game in the slow pitch league.

"Alcoholics Rehabilitation Community Home"

Known as . . . "ARCH"

THE BRIDGE TO SOBRIETY 1971 Allocation: $10,000

WHAT IS "A.R.C.H."?

This residence is a half-way home for alcoholics in which a man afflicted with the disease of alcoholism can overcome his addiction through counseling and group support in a wholesome environment. Assistance in obtaining medical attention is provided and the individual is introduced to Alcoholics Anonymous. The home serves as the meeting place for regular weekly A.A. meetings.

A.R.C.H. is also concerned with community education on the subject of alcoholism which is the third leading killer in our country. Seminars are conducted for interested persons in the community, but individual help and counsel is available for anyone with a drinking problem or for the family of such a person. Knowledgeable advice on what to do about a drinking problem and where to go for specialized help can be obtained by contacting the home.

HOW DOES THE PROGRAM WORK?

To gain admittance to the home, the applicant must have a sincere desire to stop drinking. The average applicant stays at the home for three months and pays toward his upkeep if he is employed and able to contribute. To date, 80% of the residents have been able to leave the home with their alcoholism arrested, with a job, and with the new-found self-respect necessary for them to again become contributing members of society.

THE AMERICAN SOCIAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

1971 Allocation: $745

The specific social ills concerning the American Social Health Association are drug abuse, venereal disease and commercialized prostitution. These ills stem from a factor common to all three—family failure. The cost of these in dollars is estimated in billions. The price of human misery cannot be measured. To reduce this waste ASHA's program provides voluntary leadership, research, consultation and information.

Today the heroin addict is only one index of the problem of drug dependence and abuse in the United States. There is also: The 12 year old glue sniffer, the pot head, the "hippie", the LSD tripper, the regular user of pep pills, excessive users of barbituates and tranquilizers.

The American Social Health Association is the only national voluntary agency giving major emphasis to work on drug abuse, venereal disease and commercial prostitution. The nature of these problems and activities compels ASHA to focus on youth and to work through institutions effecting youth development.

In addition to providing a center city "club" for retirees, many living alone in rented rooms, the Society has among its purposes . . . "to advance the social, economic and general welfare of retired workers."

Membership totaled 275 in July, 1971, with constant daily use of the facilities provided. The Officers are: John Zabe, president; Sid Magness, vice-president; Ollie Miller, treasurer; James Scroggins, secretary and Robert McCormick, consultant.

GIRL SCOUTS --- RIVER BLUFFS COUNCIL

1971 Allocation $19,400

Girl Scouting is an informal educational program designed to help girls in their spiritual, physical, and social development. One program with four age-level adaptations, girls from seven to seventeen are being prepared through Girl Scouting for the future as participating citizens with high ideals of character, patriotism and conduct.

Brownie Girl Scouts are girls in the second and third grade; Junior Girl Scouts, fourth, fifth and sixth grades; Cadettes, seventh, eighth and ninth grades; Senior Scouts, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

The Girl Scout program is built on values expressed in the six Foundation elements: Promise and Laws, service, troop management, citizenship, international friendship, health and safety. This Foundation permeates all programs through activities related to the arts, the home, and the out-of-doors. The girls plan their own program with the leaders' guidance, encouragement and training. Approximately 2,200 Girl Scouts in 105 troops in Granite City are now being served and will benefit from the 1971-72 United Fund Campaign. These troops are in the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, which has a total registered membership of over 14,116 girls and 2,300 adults. The Council, which has its headquarters in Edwardsville, takes in an area which includes Jersey County, Madison County, Monroe County, St. Clair County, Calhoun County, seven townships in the southern part of Macoupin County, Red Bud in Randolph County and New Baden in Clinton County.

GRANITE CITY ASSOCIATION FOR RETARDED, INC.

1971 Allocation $6,600

Our organization was founded by a small group of individuals, who, sharing mutual personal needs united for action. Now that retardation is recognized as one of the world's most serious unconquered problems, our programs must be kept alive and vital. The challenge is to make life more worth living for all the retarded and to prepare a future in which retardation itself is eradicated or reduced to the barest minimum.

The local unit, an affiliate of the National Association for Retarded Children, sponsors many activities for the retarded in our area. A two week day camp, with the cooperation of the Granite City Park District, is held at Wilson Park each summer. Other activities include a Bowling League and a Saturday Activity Center for young adult retardates. The group cooperates with the local school district by providing transportation for field trips for all Special Education classes in Granite City. A scholarship is also awarded every 4 years to a local high school graduate who is interested in teaching the retarded child.

We've come a long way in meeting our problems, but there are still countless challenges ahead, and at all levels — local, state and national.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR — Mrs. Evelyn Gavin

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

CAHOKIA MOUND COUNCIL

1971 Allocation: $50,000

The Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, is FIFTY years old, and has served all of the communities of the Tri-Cities United Fund throughout these years.

America is a disturbed land. Problems mount and frustrations surround us. Young people are deeply involved, whether it be discontent, demonstrations and riots in our cities, or our escalating crime rate. Some of our youth seem to lack the desire to relate to this nation's traditions. They are not accepting the responsibilities of a free society as we know them; some are refusing it to inherit the leadership we want to pass on to them, and it becomes readily apparent that a positive force to capture their attention and interest is essential.

SERVING THE BOY

For 60 years, the Boy Scouts of America has cultivated in boys a respect for God and country and a desire for active minds and bodies that will enable them to make the right choices in preparation for responsibilities as citizens.

CUB SCOUTING

This is a home and family-centered program for boys 8 through 10 years of age. It features a weekly den meeting directed by a Den Mother or Den Leader and a monthly gathering of dens at a pack meeting under a Cubmaster.

BOY SCOUTING

An outdoor program of Scoutcraft and leadership skills, for boys 11 through 17 years old, organized into patrols under their own leadership, within a troop.

EXPLORING

This is for young men of high school age, who plan and run their Post programs, under elected leadership and guided by an adult Explorer Advisor. The selected programs identify an Explorer post as either "general interest" or "special interest."

If your son wishes to join in any of these programs he may ask a Scout who belongs, in his neighborhood, or he may call the Cahokia Mound Council Service Center — 876-0686 and we will be ready to help him join the program phase of his interest.

TRI-CITIES AREA UNITED FUND

WHY THE UNITED WAY?

There are many ways people that you know are receiving benefits directly from your United Fund agencies. The little retarded girl down the street, the unwed mother, the boys and girls who, through participation in the programs of the Boy Scouts, YMCA, and Girl Scouts, are receiving the training that leads to happier and more productive lives. There are also programs of guidance that assist children, young people and adults and numerous health services available to all. These are only a few of the agency services provided by you and your neighbors through your United Fund. All this and more comes wrapped up in a "once for many" appeal from 19 United Fund agencies and the AFL-CIO Community Services.

So you should feel a sense of community pride each time you think of your United Campaign and the fact that your locally budget, locally allocate and locally administrate your United Fund Dollars. . . Dig a little deeper, increase your pledge, and make sure the agencies have enough money to continue their vital services to you.
